

HE COMES

Kate Bluett, Paul Zach

1. He comes, the Lord's a - nain - ted One, and we shall see His face ____
2. He comes, not to the wise and great, but to the bound and poor, ____
3. He comes, and we shall go to Him, set free from an - cient chains, ____ as clear as if the ri - sing sun poured out the light of grace. ____

so low Him - self that po - ten - tates must kneel to pass His door. ____
a - dorned in mer - cy's di - a - dem to glo - ry in His reign. ____

He comes, and we shall hear His voice, not as some dis - tant sound, ____
He comes, with fa - vor in His hands, our emp - ty souls ____ to fill, ____
He comes, the Lord, as one of us; He comes to judge the earth: ____

but tones that make the ____ heart re - joice when love, long lost, is found. ____
to make a high - way ____ through the sands and bid the storms be still. ____
how won - der - ful, how ____ glo - ri - ous His long a - wait - ed birth! ____